Credit risk factors

Needs attention

The underlying criteria that credit bureaus use to calculate the credit score.

- Positive impact: 1
- Negative impact: 3
- Neutral impact: 9

Risk factors

Based on your latest publicly filed financial statements at Companies House.

Accounts filing

Good job! The company's accounts were filed at Companies House on time. Make sure you continue to file your accounts in a timely manner.

• Neutral

Filing your annual company accounts in a regular pattern is sign of good behaviour in the eyes of Credit Reference Agencies like Experian, as it demonstrates consistency in your business activities.

• Neutral

High capital employed or positive return on capital, suggests that a company is generating more profit with each unit of capital invested, indicating efficient use of resources.

• Neutral

A sizable asset base can indicate that a company has reached a certain level of stability and maturity in its industry. A solid asset base can be deemed as a foundation to support ongoing operations and growth initiatives, and can provide valuable collateral that lenders can use to mitigate their risks when extending credit.

• Positive

Neutral Impact

Overview of your company's general information declared on your annual confirmation statement.

Company secretarial

Good job! Company and director details are all up to date at Companies House. The company Confirmation Statement was filed on time, and must be filed at least once every 12 months, even if there are no changes to report.

• Neutral

Incorporation date

The company has been established and operating for a significant number of years compared to other companies of a similar size. This suggests stability and expertise in your industry.

• Neutral

Industry and sector

The company is registered publicly and operating in what is considered to be a low risk sector of the economy.

• Neutral

Directors' Commercial Experience

Negative Impact

Publicly held information on your current board of directors and a review of their past/present business activities.

Appointed directors

The number of appointed directors is considered to be above average compared to other companies of a similar age and size. A larger number of directors suggests healthy growth in the business, which may benefit from a diverse range of expertise and experience.

• Neutral

The average age of the company's board of directors is older compared to other companies of a similar size or age. This suggests that the business can benefit from a diverse range of expertise and experience.

• Neutral

The company's directors have an above average number of other failed or closed companies compared to other companies of a similar age and size. This raises concerns regarding the long term stability of the company.

• Negative

Payment performance

Negative Impact

How your company performs when making payments to suppliers and whether you are settling within or beyond terms.

Industry payment standards

The settlement of trade credit is on average slower compared to other companies of a similar age and size.

• Negative

Overview of any derogatory notices registered against your company at county court or in gazettes.

Gazette notices

No significant adverse gazette notices have been recorded against the company. Keep up the good work of settling credit on time and maintaining good relationships with partners.

• Neutral

Registered county court judgment

At least one county court judgement has been registered against the company. Negative legal notices indicate instability or financial distress, which could impact the company's ability to repay its debts or fulfill its contractual obligations in the future.

• Negative
