Risk factors

Annual accounts

Last accounts filed 31st December 2022

Negative Impact

Based on your latest publicly filed financial statements at Companies House.

Accounts filed on time

Good job! The company's accounts were filed at Companies House on time. Make sure you continue to file your accounts in a timely manner.

• Neutral

Irregular accounts filing

The filing pattern of your company accounts are irregular, or you have a small number of accounts filed compared to businesses of a similar size. Filing your company accounts in a regular pattern demonstrates consistency in your business activities.

• Negative

Efficient use of invested capital

High capital employed or positive return on capital, suggests that a company is generating more profit with each unit of capital invested, indicating efficient use of resources.

• Neutral

Large asset base

A sizable asset base can indicate that a company has reached a certain level of stability and maturity in its industry. A solid asset base can be deemed as a foundation to support ongoing operations and growth initiatives, and can provide valuable collateral that lenders can use to mitigate their risks when extending credit.

• Positive

Adequate liquidity for working capital

A moderately equal current asset base relative to company turnover suggests that the business has adequate liquidity and working capital to support its day-to-day operations. Poor liquidity raises concerns about the company's ability to meet its short-term obligations without relying excessively on external financing.

• Neutral

Established for a long period

The company has been established and operating for a significant number of years compared to other companies of a similar size. This suggests stability and expertise in your industry.

• Neutral

Operating in a lower risk industry

The company is registered publicly and operating in what is considered to be a low risk sector of the economy. • Neutral

Directors' Commercial Experience

Neutral Impact

Publicly held information on your current board of directors and a review of their past/present business activities.

Above average number of directors

The number of appointed directors is considered to be above average compared to other companies of a similar age and size. A larger number of directors suggests healthy growth in the business, which may benefit from a diverse range of expertise and experience. • Neutral

Experienced board of directors

The average age of the company's board of directors is older compared to other companies of a similar size or age. This suggests that the business can benefit from a diverse range of expertise and experience. • Neutral

Positive director activities

The company's directors have no previously failed or closed companies detected. Previous failures raises concerns regarding the long term stability of the company. • Neutral
