Credit risk factors

Needs attention

The underlying criteria that credit bureaus use to calculate the credit score.

- Positive impact: -
- Negative impact: 3
- Neutral impact: 9

Risk factors

Based on your latest publicly filed financial statements at Companies House.

Accounts filing

Good job! The company's accounts were filed at Companies House on time. Make sure you continue to file your accounts in a timely manner.

• Neutral

The filing pattern of your company accounts are irregular, or you have a small number of accounts filed compared to businesses of a similar size. Filing your company accounts in a regular pattern demonstrates consistency in your business activities.

• Negative

An asset-light business can offer advantages in terms of flexibility and efficiency, but it may also expose a company to certain risks, such as reliance on external suppliers and a lack of collateral that can be leveraged by lenders to mitigate their risks when extending credit.

• Negative

A balanced gearing ratio suggests that the company has relatively equal proportions of equity or assets relative to debt. A favourable gearing ratio indicates financial stability, as the company relies more on equity financing and has lower levels of debt relative to its assets

• Neutral

Shareholders' funds typically occur when the company generates profits or receives capital injection, which are retained and reinvested into the business. This indicates financial health in the business through growth and profitability.

• Neutral

Overview of your company's general information declared on your annual confirmation statement.

Company secretarial

Good job! Company and director details are all up to date at Companies House. The company Confirmation Statement was filed on time, and must be filed at least once every 12 months, even if there are no changes to report. • Neutral

Incorporation date

The company has been established and operating for a relatively short time compared to other companies of a similar size. This makes assessing financial stability, performance and reliability more difficult. • Negative

Industry and sector

The company is registered publicly and operating in what is considered to be a low risk sector of the economy. • Neutral

---

Directors' Commercial Experience

Neutral Impact

Publicly held information on your current board of directors and a review of their past/present business activities.

Appointed directors

The number of appointed directors is considered to be above average compared to other companies of a similar age and size. A larger number of directors suggests healthy growth in the business, which may benefit from a diverse range of expertise and experience. • Neutral

The average age of the company's board of directors is older compared to other companies of a similar size or age. This suggests that the business can benefit from a diverse range of expertise and experience. • Neutral
