Based on your latest publicly filed financial statements at Companies House.

Accounts filed on time

Good job! The company's accounts were filed at Companies House on time. Make sure you continue to file your accounts in a timely manner.

• Neutral

Regular accounts filing

Filing your annual company accounts in a regular pattern is sign of good behaviour in the eyes of Credit Reference Agencies like Experian, as it demonstrates consistency in your business activities.

• Neutral

Average asset base

An average asset base can be deemed as a foundation to support ongoing operations and growth initiatives, and can provide valuable collateral that lenders can use to mitigate their risks when extending credit. A large asset base can indicate that a company has reached a certain level of stability and maturity in its industry.

• Neutral

Balanced financial leverage

A balanced gearing ratio suggests that the company has relatively equal proportions of equity or assets relative to debt. A favourable gearing ratio indicates financial stability, as the company relies more on equity financing and has lower levels of debt relative to its assets

• Neutral

Unaffected shareholders' funds

Shareholders' funds typically occur when the company generates profits or receives capital injection, which are retained and reinvested into the business. This indicates financial health in the business through growth and profitability.
